WeatherHawk and Campbell Scientific Africa announce Distribution Agreement for Africa.

Logan, UT – 04/07/2003 – Today, WeatherHawk jointly announced with Campbell Scientific Africa, (CSAf) a distribution Agreement for Angola, Benin, Botswana, Burkina Faso, Burundi, Cameroon, Cape Verde, Central African Republic, Chad, Comoros, Democratic Republic of Congo, Republic of Congo, Cote d'Ivoire, Djibouti, Equatorial Guinea, Eritrea, Ethiopia, Gabon, The Gambia, Ghana, Guinea, Guinea-Bissau, Kenya, Lesotho, Liberia, Madagascar, Malawi, Mali, Mauritius, Mozambique, Namibia, Niger, Nigeria, Rwanda, Sao Tome & Principe, Senegal, Seychelles, Sierra Leone, Somalia, South Africa, Sudan, Swaziland, Tanzania, Togo, Uganda, Zambia, Zimbabwe, covering the WeatherHawk family of WIRELESS weather stations.

WeatherHawk weather stations provide the educator, farmer, environmentalist, plant manager, consumer and weather enthusiast with a cost effective, easy to use solution to weather information needs. Both directly connected and wireless versions of this rugged fully configured and optionally internet connected weather station are available for immediate delivery.

The Agreement with CSAf provides WeatherHawk with immediate entry to markets that are traditionally challenging for U.S. companies due to product promotion and support requirements. CSAf. is a well established, respected supplier of a wide range of environmental measurement products and systems in Africa. Johan Visagie, Managing Director of CSAf, states that WeatherHawk adds a new range of weather related products to those currently offered by his company. WeatherHawk enables CSAf, to now serve the needs of weather enthusiasts and light industrial users, in addition to its current range of scientific and professional environmental monitoring system customers.

CSAf will also become the WeatherHawk Service Center for Africa. WeatherHawk is providing CSAf with equipment to enable the company to immediately support system sales and service.

WeatherHawk is manufactured in the United States, and supported worldwide through a combination of affiliated companies and independent dealers. Please contact WeatherHawk or Campbell Scientific Africa, as indicated below for additional information.

WeatherHawk is a Trademark of Campbell Scientific, Inc. in the United States and/or other countries.
